Where Does Trafficking Occur?

Sex trafficking can take place anywhere, but victims are often found in:

- Bars and Brothels
- Dance clubs and strip clubs
- Massage parlors and spas
- Escort services
- Private parties
- On the street
- Online (Internet Exploitation)
- At the Southern or other U.S. border
- Major sporting competitions
- Business conferences
- Political summits
- Cultural festivals
- Hotels
- Near military installations

In the U.S., young men, women, and children, especially boys, have been found in forced labor in:

- Agricultural work
- Meat processing plants
- Chicken processing plants
- Construction
- Landscaping
- Janitorial services
- Waste management